Components

The two cast iron supports have entries for the bicycle rack railing. Each support is semi-circular in shape with a circular cross-section (diameter: 36mm [1 2/4"]) with flutings and has feet decorated with leaves at the extremities. In the central part, the decoration is cube-shaped and decorated with two rosettes on the sides, a small sphere on the lower part and a larger sphere, half decorated with leaves, on the upper part.

The steel railing has twelve slots for bicycles and is fixed to the lateral supports with four stainless steel M8 screws. The distance between the slots is 180mm [7"], and the opening for inserting the wheel is 60mm [2 1/4"].

Note

The installation distance of the adjacent bicycle rack to the walls must not be less than 200mm [7 3/4"] to allow for the wheel to be inserted correctly into the space.
